

Call for Treatments

Titan TV is currently accepting show treatments and producer applications for Fall 2018.

Open Pitching and Producer Opportunities

- Show Creator – Create show treatment, but not serve as producer
- Show Creator/Producer – Create show treatment and serve as producer
- Producer – Serve as producer on a Titan TV show

General Show Guidelines

- Live or Live-to-Tape 30 minute Studio Productions
- Short-form (15 minute or less) Episodic Productions
- Long-Form (22-30 minutes) Episodic Productions
- One-time Event Productions (concerts, telethons, etc)

General Producer Requirements

- Create a quality product that represents the university and Titan TV positively
- Work with Operations Manager to create their program's production schedule
- Attend scheduled Producer Meetings
- Submit any other documents as required by the Executive Board, the Director of Television Services, or the Titan TV Advisor
- Complete and deliver shows within deadlines provided in their Producer Contract
- Create and manage a budget with the approval of the Titan TV Station Manager and within limits set in their Producer Contract
- Oversee all aspects of their show's creation from pre-production through airing
- Create and deliver promotions as required by the Promotions Director

How to apply

Application and official pitch information can be found at <http://titan-tv.org/pitching/>.

All materials and resume are due on Saturday, April 21st by 11:59pm.

Show Treatment should follow the Producers Step-by-Step Guide. Resume should be current and include the following:

- Relevant experience with Titan TV and other student media organizations,
- Internships, work experience, relevant class work and skills

Producers and show creators must be available to present show treatments to the Titan TV Executive staff on Sunday, April 22 between 4:00pm and 6:00pm. Direct any questions to Station Manager, Sean Becher, at titantv@uwosh.edu.